OF MODERN DEMOCRACY IN THE UNITED STATES.

AN AGRICULTURAL AND POLITICAL WEEKLY ALL IN ONE $100 PER YEAR.

No question of national importance—and all political and economic questions of momentare national ones—begins in congress. They are conversed and discussed by the people and press, and when they treach congress that body has merely the details to consider. THE CHICAGO WEEKLY TIMES has become the reorgatized law or of the great plain people—the law could show of the common wealth and the hope of the American republic. Its editorials are broad, teatment, elegancia, convincing and dignified, and as comprehensive in the subjects treated as are the questions of human interest.

The other of the day, and upon its indosession in a large degree, their fature, for it is broad in its views, liberal in its indignent, and has the best possible means of forming a convect one, and knowing its daty to man, the cumrry, progress, and fature greatness, is litter above higher and narrow mindedness, dares perform it. To it all subscribers should turn breatlightenment, enouragement, sympathy, assistance, and the nerve to carry out their undertakings.

In its ranks are to be bound the brightest minds in every line. Week by week it talks to every subscriber of what is going on, brusies away the dast from the past man startights the coming. It forecasts the future and torewards against disaster. It is a matchies scrap book of knowledge for the fature, mechanic, lawyer, one tor, and all good cribens.

Without the requirements of waling through pages of procedural matter THE CHICAGO.

Without the requirements of wading through pages of irrelevant matter THE CHICAGO WEEKLY TIMES are sto its readers the safted grains of the arch, history, science, and all at a game ; makes every reader a co-mopolite, and brings the estire wealth of the world to his very door.
